YOU THINK MIME IS DEAD? THINK AGAIN!

Duo Mimikry are Nicolas Rocher (FRA) and Elias Elastisch (GER), two mime artists in love with their art-form who like to tell stories with a crunch.

Their satirical, ingenious and blatant style as well as modern visual techniques make the right recipe for those TASTY BISCUITS. Two actors, some costumes and one simple screen are all it takes to transport the audience into one hell of a ride.

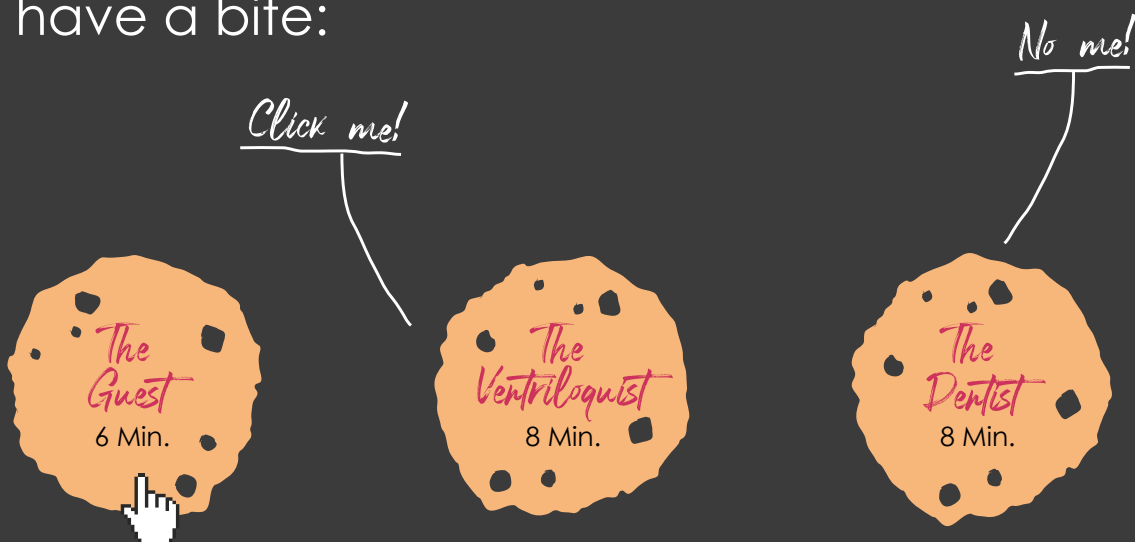

Duo Mimikry, as the name suggests, imitate the grotesque side of our society; such as a magic show gone completely wrong, a ventriloquist threatened by his puppet or two undertakers longing for new 'customers'.

With picture perfect detail and pitch black humour, no doubt the audience will be coming back for more of those TASTY BISCUITS!
